

Event programme

Building climate action locally: tools from the CCAT project

Time	Topic	Presenter
9.30am - 9.45am	Introduction to the CCAT project and testimonials from CCAT participants	Karen Foley, Senior Responsible Officer for CCAT and Head of Landscape Architecture, UCD
9.45am-10am	Guest address	Vicky Brown, CEO, Cool Planet Experience and rewriteclimate
10am-10.20am	Tools for engaging with local authorities - Geodesign and community engagement Q&A	Saul Crowley, Research Scientist, Fingal County Council
10.20am-10.40am	Tools for engaging with schools and young people - Climate changes, impacts and actions workshops Q&A	Alex Cameron-Smith, Communities and Climate Change Engagement Coordinator, Pembrokeshire Coastal Forum
10.40am-11am	Tools for engaging with communities of place <sup>1</sup> - Part I Coastal Communities Growing Together project - A participatory mapping community tree planting project along the Milford Haven Waterway Q&A	Lauren Blacklaw-Jones, Community Engagement and Communications Coordinator, Port of Milford Haven
11am-11.10am	Break

---

<sup>1</sup> A community of place is a community of people who are bound together because of where they live, work or visit.

11.10am-11.30am	Tools for engaging with communities of place - Part II Reviving Carriage Drive project - A participatory mapping community heritage design project in Pembroke Dock Q&A	Chiara Cocco, Research Scientist, University College Dublin
11.30am-11.50am	Tools for engaging with communities of practice <sup>2</sup> - Part I Policy analysis and information on coastal climate adaptation in Ireland Q&A	Fernanda Stori, Senior Post-Doctoral Researcher, University College Cork/MaREI
11.50am-12.10pm	Tools for engaging with communities of practice - Part II Knowledge exchange and best practice for coastal climate adaptation Q&A	Emma McKinley, Research Fellow, Cardiff University
12.10pm-12.30pm	Wrap up - where do we go from here?	Philip Crowe, Senior Responsible Officer for CCAT and Assistant Professor in Climate Responsive Design, UCD School Architecture, Planning and Environmental Policy and UCD School Civil Engineering

---

<sup>2</sup> A community of practice are groups of people who share a concern or a passion for something they do and learn how to do it better as they interact regularly.